

High Schools Are Slated to Open Series At American League Park Tomorrow

HIGH SCHOOL SERIES OPENS TOMORROW

Eastern and Business Oppose in First Game for Scholastic Championship.

TOM FISHER IS TO PITCH

Stenographers Looked Upon by Many as Dark Horse, and Will Be Watched.

Eastern and Business formally open the 1913 struggle for the baseball supremacy of the Washington high schools tomorrow afternoon at National Park at 3 o'clock.

The fact that Tom Fisher, Eastern's all-around athlete, will make an appearance with the Capitol Hill team, following his reinstatement at the high school is calculated to strengthen the team on account of hitting, which has been woefully lacking this year.

For the Light Blue and White, Johnson has been nominated to do the box honors and how well he will acquit himself is only a matter of conjecture for the followers of the team. Business on the other hand, is placing its hopes on "Speed" Kepp, who has done excellent work all this year.

The Stenographers have played good ball in all their engagements and are looking forward to a win. Several strong teams have been put out of commission by the Business nine and the players at the Rhode Island Avenue School, while not claiming the pennant, say they have as good a team as any in the league.

Business is regarded as the dark horse in the 1913 campaign. While Western is picked as the favorite, Business on past performances has clearly demonstrated its ability to combine heavy hitting with good pitching. Wood will catch Kelly in the game tomorrow.

When is slated to hold down first for the Pen Pushers, while Brennon is booked for the midway position. Borneo is to play short while Derrick, who is piloting the nine this year, will play at third, Eldmayer, Hunt, and Boerstein will make up the outfield. E.H. Hunt or Derrick are able to go in the box so that Business seems to be well fortified with pitching talent.

Eastern will have Captain Dyer behind the bat in the event that either John son or Greer start the game. While Johnson is the logical choice, Greer may be called upon, and will warm them up.

Three Fishers are slated for outfield positions, while Horn is on first, Lawson at second, Flynn at short, and Thorne at third.

Will Admit Sixth Club Next Week

A sixth club is expected to be admitted to the Washington Sunday School League at its next meeting, one week from tomorrow night. At last night's meeting which was held at Ninth Street Christian Church, a schedule was presented for adoption by the committee, but owing to several changes that were made, it was held over until the next meeting.

A complete roster of the managers of the five clubs already in the East Washington Sunday School League follows:

First M. P. E. Arnold, 541 Seventh street, southeast; Reformation, Charles Newman, 128 Seventh street, northeast; St. Agnes, J. C. Easton, 1111 Sixth street, northwest; United Brethren, G. C. Fultz, 42 Adams street, northwest; Ninth, A. G. Reiter, 1234 East Capitol street; and R. L. Conner, 1355 F street, northeast.

Request Martin to Head Amateur League

Some time today, a committee of the Northwest Sunday School Baseball League will visit E. S. Martin, superintendent of playgrounds of the District, at which time he will be requested to accept the presidency of that circuit. David P. Wolphaug has recently declined the office, to which he was elected. Washington Heights club, the fifth team to join the Northwest Sunday School League, joined last night.

R. F. Carby, of Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church; William Richardson, of Emmanuel Baptist; and R. Walker, of Calvary Methodist, accepted offices as vice president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

A committee appointed to look into the advisability of securing the field at Georgia avenue and Kenyon street, formerly occupied by the Northern Association, reported favorably, and a deal will probably be closed today whereby the property will be secured.

Villanova Team at Brookland With C. U.

Villanova will play Carline University at Brookland today in the first of the games scheduled for the Red and Black this week. While the weather has made baseball impossible Coach Moran is expecting a win over the visitors.

Chief Greene will probably be given a work-out in preparation for the games next week. Catholic University has set to lose a game to a college team this year.

BECK AND ROLLER MEET AT LYCEUM

German Wrestler Here to Go on Mat With Famous Seattle Physician Tonight.

Eyes of Washington wrestling followers are today concentrated on the appearance at the Lyceum Theater tonight of Dr. Roller, the Seattle physician, who has attained world-wide fame as a heavyweight wrestler, and Franz Beck, a heavyweight, of Germany. Only after several months of dickering has Manager Mayer been able to bring these two athletes together at his playhouse.

Both Beck and Dr. Roller are anxious to be matched with America's best-known athlete, who is said to stand next to Frank Gotch on the heavyweight ladder. American, however, will not agree to a match with either of them until they have been matched together.

America has indicated to Mayer that he is agreeable to the match, but wishes to reserve any promise until tonight's bout is decided.

Many Stakes for Saratoga Association

NEW YORK, April 17.—Twenty-eight stakes will be run at the August meeting of the Saratoga Association, according to announcement by the governors today.

Seven of the events will be for three-year-olds and up. They are: Saratoga Handicap, Saratoga Cup, Champlain Handicap, Merchants and Citizens Handicap, Delaware Handicap, Catskill and Amsterdam Selling Stakes.

For the three-year-olds exclusively the Travers, Alabama, Huron Handicap, Saratoga Handicap, and the Mohawk and Seneca Stakes are provided. Eleven stakes are scheduled for two-year-olds. With the subscriptions of twenty-four men already collected, the association expects to be in the best official shape for the opening in the latter part of August.

BIG BOOST IS GIVEN MOTORISTS' CLUB

Twenty-three Prominent Owners of Automobiles Added to Rolls of Association.

By HARRY WARD.

The membership of the Washington Motorists' Association, received a big boost last night, when the board of governors added the names of twenty-three prominent automobile owners to the rolls.

The board met at the Grafton, and elected the following to membership: Robert H. Martin, T. C. Dulin, Fred B. Pyle, H. C. Chandler, Emmons I. Smith, L. W. Strayer, W. M. Weaver, C. Taylor Wade, Ralph L. Galt, M. R. Blumensberg, Frank H. Walker, William F. Matteson, Daniel Levy, B. W. Chiswell, G. G. Hamner, William Jones, E. B. McLean, Charles W. Semmes, Norion M. Little, Lamar Jackson, Charles T. May, John Doyle Carmody, and R. J. Beall.

The board considered a number of matters of interest to motorists, and instructed W. S. Duval, counsel for the association, to continue his work of defending the cases of members brought into court for violations of the new traffic regulations.

The Virginia license question was brought up, but as the District Commissioners have taken no action on the letter addressed to them by Mr. Duval, the matter was passed over until the next meeting of the board. Under the Virginia law temporary permits to operate motor cars in that State for stated periods may be issued to motorists of this State.

Perfumed Notes and other Lady Bugs will be glad to learn that Speaker, Wood, Carrigan, Gardner, Nunamaker, O'Brien and Thomas, of the Red Sox champions, are all eligible bachelors who entice such a job of money every two weeks that it couldn't be planted in two dozen pairs of silk, or lace, or just plain cotton ones.

Are Eligible.

Bob Thayer's Sporting Gossip

"EVERY KNOCK IS A BOOST."

Egan is wanted.

Griff wants Ben Egan, you can paste that in your Benny. On top of the story that the Athletics' catcher is sold to Dunn, comes the pipe that Jack Dunn journeyed over here and told Griff how to properly bandage John Henry's knee so that it would be fit to work on. According to the blast Griff took Dunn's advice and then Dunn got Egan to Baltimore. What's the use of being an old fox?

Speaking of catchers.

This youth Schalk, who is backstopping for the White Sox, looks primed thus early in the season. Aside from breaking up a game yesterday the youngster has clouted better than any other member of the Sox in the games played. Last season he batted for 26 in twenty-three games and so far has started out in big league style.

Meredith honored.

Ted Meredith, Olympic hero and premier quarter and half miler, gets the captaincy of the Penn freshmen track team at the annual election. Owing to the rule prohibiting freshmen from entering the intercollegiate field and track games, Meredith will not appear this year, but can be counted upon for the next three years to come.

Harvard is here.

Harvard is here.

Johnny Harvard has a fine day at the Hilltop with Dr. Frank Seddon piloting the Crimson Stockings in their annual game with Georgetown. Unfortunately, Catholic University does not get a crack at the Harvard team. Rain knocked out Yale game, and as the Brooklanders have no contest with Harvard fans have but to guess what Coach Moran's team could do against these two.

Seton Hall coming.

Let Catholic University be fooled in thinking the game with Seton Hall tomorrow and Saturday, are to be taken as mere practice, figure upon the win over Mt. St. Mary's yesterday. The Emmitsburg team is no slouch, and the visiting New Jersey players won a tight game, displaying all sorts of good baseball.

Shake before using.

I see the amateurs are shaking up their schedules before the games are played. This is one of the chief pleasures of the amateur baseball season. After the first month of amateur ball, when rain and postponements have caused many games to remain out of the won and lost column, the amateur leaders get together and revise. This year they are revising before starting.

Look for fight.

This high school series this year is going to be a corker unless all the dope goes away. Western looks good. Business is strong, Tech uncertain. Central unknown, and Eastern hopeful, and there you have it. The hope of every team lies in the fact that the other fellow is liable to go up for an altitude record any moment during the conflict.

More about links.

Let us have some more about the public golf links in Potomac Park and a grand stadium for the Army-Navy game and the high school contests. Sounds pretty good, and has for a number of years. Along that line I'm almost ready to qualify as an unbeliever. It has gotten to be a case of "show me."

BUSY SEASON FOR POTOMAC BOATMEN

Annual Election of Officers Takes Place at Clubhouse in Georgetown.

Members of the Potomac Boat Club announce a booming year for the organization following the meeting at which the annual election of officers occurred. Members of the club have outlined plans for the year which include the usual regattas for the oarsmen and the social events of the summer.

Rixey Asks Locke For Contract to Sign

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 17.—Eppa Rixey reached an agreement with President Locke, of the Phillies, today as regards the amount of money Eppa is to receive of his reports to Boss Doolin in Brooklyn on Friday. Eppa called up the Phillies' head yesterday morning and asked Mr. Locke to send the contract rejected by Eppa in January, declaring that the terms are satisfactory to him. This means that in all likelihood the tall Virginian will be clad in maroon and brown on Friday afternoon over at Ebbets Field.

The only possible hitch there might be to prevent Eppa from reporting is that he may decide to cling to his former idea of not reporting until June 1. In that case a new contract will have to be drawn up. There is small likelihood of this happening, however. Rixey left for Charlottesville just before noon yesterday, to confer with the powers of the University of Virginia. His signed contract will create no deaths due to the shock of surprise if it arrives today or tomorrow.

Some years ago the clothing market was suddenly flooded with cotton-mixed goods—a fraud on the wearer—we took a definite stand for all-wool fabrics in men's clothes.

Now comes a time when higher costs of materials and labor are tempting everybody to low prices for clothes; and we're not afraid to meet the situation by saying, plainly, that you'd better pay $25 for a suit of clothes, if you really want the greatest value for your money.

Some men can't afford to pay $25; we make clothes to retail as low as $18; they're good clothes; worth the money. But many men are wearing $15, $16.50, $17.50, $18 suits who can afford better clothes; there's economy in paying $25 for ours. If you want to pay $35 or $40, there's the same economy in them.

Be sure our mark is in them; a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.
